Portion Updates: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Bees: Not a very productive year due to the weather. Honey now in jars with a couple spare for the raffle. Mark is considering taking on portion lead. Once covid restrictions lift there is local interest from a few more families. Need to keep vegetation around the hives cut well back at the beginning of the growing season to keep under control. • Veg: Now working in pairs again through lockdown. Winter leeks and brassicas to harvest. Winter work underway emptying matured compost heaps and taking down the old pallets to clear the area for Jenny's future summerhouse. Muck spreading and sheeting over empty beds to avoid digging. Seeds to be ordered next week. Honey and case of James's cider to go to neighbors Steve and Jan in return for water supply for our tanks through the dry months, also medlar fruits from the tree on site. Ducks: Have started laying in the duck house!!! Beki's routine working well. Goats: Doing well, milk yield dropping a bit so may bring Juniper home soon so she can	PW

be assessed as a possible milker (may be too small). Muck heap now sorted and fencing repaired. More hay to come from Awre. Beki to contact Henrietta about plans for joint milking venture as hers will need to go to the billy soon if she wants to go ahead.
